

SUMMERHOUSE DOG FIELD TERMS & CONDITIONS: XL BULLY TYPE DOGS AND BANNED BREEDS

Banned breeds, including XL Bully type dogs must strictly adhere to the following conditions of use:

- The dog(s) is registered with the Index of Exempted Dog (IED) and copies of the life certificate can be provided if required.
- The dog(s) has public liability insurance, and a copy of this certificate can be provided if required.
- The dog handler ratio is 1:1 and the dog is with their handler, who must be over the age of 16, at all times
- The dog is neutered in line with Government terms.
- The dog is micro-chipped.
- The dog is kept on a lead and muzzled until securely locked inside the field, this includes the car park area. The dog must be placed back on a lead and muzzled when leaving the field to enter the car park.
- You can remove the lead and muzzle once locked inside the field.
- If the household has more than one dog, the banned breed must have a handler ratio of 1:1, another handler must be present for the other dog(s). If the household has more than one banned breed, each dog must have its own handler. For example, a household with four dogs, two of which are banned breeds must have a total of 3 handlers: one for each banned breed and one for the remaining dogs.
- Different households cannot share a session with banned breed dogs.
